

Commando Training Challenge

Commando Training Centre Royal Marines
Lympstone, Devon

Wednesday
18 September 2024

Your Invitation

---

You are cordially invited to attempt the Commando Training Challenge on 18 September 2024.

This is a truly unique opportunity for you to pit yourself against the original and only Royal Marines Endurance Course and Bottom Field Assault Course.

The Royal Marines are an elite element of the UK Armed Forces and this will give you the chance to test your resolve on the world renowned Commando Tests.

This challenge will be a true test of your personal commitment to the Commando qualities of courage, determination, unselfishness and cheerfulness.

Funds raised through this once in a lifetime opportunity will enable us to continue supporting serving and former Marines, and their families, through life.

Prizes

The winner of this event will carry home the Commando Training Challenge Cup and all participants will receive a commemorative medal and certificate, celebrating their outstanding achievement.

The Challenge

Do you have what it takes to be put through your paces by the Royal Marines PTI team and take on the world famous Commando tests? You will gain exclusive access 'behind the wire' at Commando Training Centre, the home of the Royal Marines.

- Your challenge will begin on the Royal Marine's infamous Endurance Course on Woodbury Common where you will take on, amongst others, the Sheep Dip and Peter's Pool. This part of the challenge is 3-4km long.
- You will then be transported to the Bottom Field Assault Course on CTCRM, and after a (re)warmup by the PTI team you will be timed on your best effort.
- The day will finish with a delicious buffet and a congratulatory prize-giving ceremony, within the Commando Training Centre, for the winners of the following categories:
  - 1st Place Male
  - 1st Place Female
  - Highest Individual Fundraiser
  - 1st over-40
- Refreshments will be provided throughout the day and you'll receive a special edition kit bag which will contain two bespoke t-shirts and a host of other goodies.

Entry Fee & Sponsorship

- Entry Fee: £60
- Minimum Sponsorship: £300

Location

- The Commando Training Centre, also known as CTCRM, is the principal training centre for the Royal Marines.
- Based at Lympstone in Devon, CTCRM selects and trains all Royal Marines Officers, Recruits and Reserves. CTCRM is unique in that it also provides command training for all Non Commissioned Officers (NCO) and training for 70% of all RM specialists.
- On average, 1,300 recruits, 2,000 potential recruits and 400 potential Officers attend training and acquaint courses at CTCRM every year. In addition, the Training Wings run upwards of 320 courses a year for a further 2,000 students.
